Los Angeles, Calif – Oct. 12, 2005 - Anderson Bremer Paper Co, a division of The Andwin Corporation announced today it has acquired Mammoth Packaging and Display, a privately held provider of custom corrugated packaging and displays in Southern California.

Mammoth Packaging has been a well-respected distributor in Southern California for over 20 years and has a very similar culture to that of Anderson Bremer Paper Co. The acquisition will enhance ABP's growing position in Southern California and provide support for further acquisitions.

Andwin Corporation, CEO Natalie Sarraf, said: " This acquisition is consistent with our objectives to continue to grow profitably, diversify our corporate portfolio and provide superior service to all our customers as we have for the past 55 years.

The Andwin Corporation has been in business since 1950, and operates nationally from California, Illinois and North Carolina.
